

Constitution
for
University of Minnesota Technical Employees
Local 3937

Article I
Name

This union is committed to the policy that all persons shall have equal access to its offices, memberships and services without regard to race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, public assistance status, veteran status, or sexual orientation.

The name of this organization shall be University of Minnesota Technical Employees Local Number 3937 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

Article II
Affiliations

This local union shall be affiliated with Minnesota Council Number 5 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Article III
Objectives

The objectives of this local union shall be to carry out on a local basis the objectives of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Article IV
Membership and Dues

Section 1. All employees in University of Minnesota bargaining unit 7, excluding those employed at the University of Minnesota-Duluth, are eligible for membership in this local union, subject to the requirements of the constitution of the International Union.

Section 2. Application for membership shall be made on a standard application form. Unless such form includes a valid authorization for payroll deduction of dues, the application shall be accompanied by the current month's dues.

Section 3. The monthly membership dues of the local shall be based on 1.6% of the gross pay on bi-weekly paychecks prior to pre-tax deductions and the addition of overtime. Whenever there is a per capita adjustment by AFSCME International or the council, the members' dues shall increase by one-half of the amount necessary to cover the per capita adjustment.

Section 4. Membership dues shall be payable monthly in advance to the local treasurer and in any event shall be paid not later than the 15th day of the month in which they become due. Any member who fails to pay dues by the 15th day of the month in which they become due shall be considered delinquent, and upon failure to pay dues for two consecutive months shall stand suspended. However, that any person who is paying dues through a system of regular payroll deduction shall for so long as such person continues to pay through such deduction method, be considered in good standing.

Section 5. A member suspended under the above section may be reinstated to membership in the local on payment of all arrearages.

Article V Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings of this local shall be held once each month, at a time and place to be fixed by the membership or the local executive board.

Section 2. Special meetings may be called by the local president, the local executive board, or by petition filed with the president and signed by three members of the local. Special meetings may also be called by the International President or by an authorized representative of the International President.

Section 3. The quorum for meetings of this local shall be fifteen (15) members of the local in good standing.

Article VI Officers, Nominations, and Elections

Section 1. The officers of this local shall be a president, a vice-president/organizer, a vice-president/chief steward, a recording secretary, a treasurer, and five (5) executive board members, and these ten (10) shall constitute the local union executive board. Executive board members shall be elected from the membership at large. In addition, there shall be elected three members who shall serve as trustees. The trustees shall be elected to three-year terms of office, with one trustee position elected each year, that position being the one that had last been elected three years previously. All other officers shall be elected for a term of two years in the even-numbered years.

Section 2. A call for nominations shall be mailed to all members at their last known address at least fifteen days prior to the nominations meeting. The call shall be returned to the chair of the nominations committee prior to the close of nominations. A nominating committee may be appointed to make nominations, but whether or not such nominating committee is used, nominations shall be permitted from the floor at the general membership meeting in April. Elections shall be held in the month of May.

Section 3. To be eligible for office, a member must be in good standing for one year immediately preceding the election, except in the initial election held in this local; provided, however, that no retired member shall be a candidate for office. For a member who is transferred or promoted into this local from another AFSCME local, this requirement shall be satisfied if such member's combined membership in good standing in both locals is one year at the time of election.

Section 4. Officers shall be elected by secret ballot vote, and the balloting shall be so conducted as to afford to all members a reasonable opportunity to vote. At least fifteen days' advance notice shall be given the membership prior to the holding of the election.

Section 5. All matters concerning nominations and elections in this local union shall be subject to the provisions of Appendix D, entitled Elections Code, of the International Union Constitution.

Section 6. Vacancies in office shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by vote of the executive board.

Section 7. Every officer shall, upon assuming office, subscribe to the Obligation of an Officer contained in Appendix B of the International Union Constitution.

Article VII
Duties of Officers and Executive Board

Section 1. The president shall:

- a. preside at all meetings of the local union and of the executive board.
- b. be a member of all committees except election committees.
- c. countersign all checks drawn against the funds of the local.
- d. appoint all standing committees and all special committees of the local, subject to the approval of the executive board.
- e. report periodically to the membership regarding the progress and standing of the local and regarding the president's official acts.
- f. attend the AFSCME International Convention as an automatic delegate of the local.

Section 2. The vice-president/organizer shall:

- a. assist the president in the work of the president's office.
- b. in the absence of the president or in the president's inability to serve, preside at all meetings and perform all duties otherwise performed by the president.
- c. upon approval by the local executive board, be authorized to act as co-signer of checks drawn on the local funds in place of either the president or the treasurer.
- d. shall chair the organizing committee.

Section 3. The vice-president/chief steward shall:

- a. act to enforce the collective bargaining agreement between the union and the university.
- b. act to educate members about our contract.
- c. upon approval of the local executive board, be authorized to act as co-signer of checks drawn on the local funds in place of either the president or the treasurer.
- d. chair the stewards committee.
- e. establish and maintain a grievance file.
- f. become a trained steward if not so trained prior to election.

Section 4. The recording secretary shall:

- a. keep a record of the proceedings of all membership meetings and of all executive board meetings.
- b. carry on the official correspondence of the local, except as the executive board may direct otherwise.

- c. upon approval of the local executive board, be authorized to act as co-signer of checks drawn on the local funds in place of either the president or the treasurer.
- d. perform such other duties as the executive board may require.

Section 5. The treasurer shall:

- a. receive and receipt for all monies of the local union.
- b. deposit all money so received in the name of the local union in a bank or banks selected by the executive board, and money so deposited shall be withdrawn only by check signed by two of the following officers: president, vice-president/chief steward, vice-president/organizer, recording secretary or the treasurer.
- c. prepare and sign checks for such purposes as are required by the constitution or are authorized by the membership or the executive board.
- d. prepare and submit the monthly membership report to the International Union office and see that a check is drawn in payment of the local's per capita tax each month and sent to the International Secretary-Treasurer.
- e. keep an accurate record of receipts and disbursements and shall, once each month, submit to the membership a monthly operating statement of the financial transactions of the local for the previous month.
- f. act as custodian of all properties of the local union.
- g. give a surety bond for an amount to be fixed by the executive board of the local union, at the expense of the local union and through the International Union.
- h. see that any financial reports required by the International Union Constitution to be submitted to the International Union are submitted in accordance with the International Union Constitution.

Section 6. The trustees shall make or cause to be made at least semi-annually an audit of the finances of the local, including the finances concerning any health and welfare, pension, insurance or other benefit programs covering members of such local, and shall report to the membership on the results of such audit.

Section 7. The executive board shall be the governing body of the local union except when meetings of the local union are in session. All matters affecting the policies, aims and means of accomplishing the purposes of the local not specifically provided for in this constitution or by action of the membership at a regular or special meeting shall be decided by the executive board. The board shall meet prior to the general membership meeting. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president or by petition signed by three (3) members in good standing. A report on all actions taken by the executive board shall be made to the membership at the next general membership meeting. A majority of the members of the executive board shall be required for a quorum.

Article VIII
Miscellaneous Provisions

Section 1. This local union shall at all times be subject to the provisions of the constitution of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Section 2. Except to the extent specified in this constitution, no officer of the local union shall have the power to act as agent for or otherwise bind the local union in any way whatsoever. No member or group of members or other person or persons shall have the power to act on behalf of or otherwise bind the local union except to the extent specifically authorized in writing by the president of the local union or by the executive board of the local union.

Section 3. The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern this local union in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with this constitution and special rules of this local union or of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees.

Article IX
Amendments

This constitution may be amended, revised, or otherwise changed by a majority vote of the members voting on such proposed change and such change shall take effect only upon written approval of the International President. Proposed amendments to this constitution must be read at a regular or special meeting of the local union and read and voted on at two subsequent meetings of the local union, adequate and proper notice having been given to the membership prior to the date on which the vote is taken. A written copy of the proposed amendment shall be furnished to every eligible voter by the time of the second reading and at the meeting at which the vote is taken.
